

The μFrenzel® Video Goggles - Medical are the first affordable vertigo diagnostic equipment available in the market*.

Provided in an ergonomic and portable format, the μFrenzel® Video Goggles - Medical are comfortable to wear and easy to use.

The μFrenzel® Video Goggles - Medical allows precise, real-time visualization of eye movements in the absence of visual fixation (darkness).

The integrated LCD displays and battery allows the device to be operated freely without the need of wired connections to external monitors or to the power supply.

Innovative medical device for VERTIGO DIAGNOSE
5X MORE AFFORDABLE than similar products.

* Patent Pending

Diagnose several clinical syndromes

- Acute Vestibular Syndrome
- Benign Paroxysmal Positional Vertigo (BPPV)
- Ménière's disease
- Migrainous vertigo

Technical specs

- Reusable medical device
- Built in dual 3.5 inch LCD display
- Integrated lithium-ion battery
- Latency under 30ms
- Dual analog video output
- 5V DC connector

MADE IN PORTUGAL

Intended use:

For professional medical doctor use only.

Intended exclusively for aiding medical diagnose through the visualization of eye movements in darkness.

